1.0 Scope

- 1.1 This policy applies to all school employees, both full time and part time, who meet the qualifying conditions (see 4.0 below).

2.0 Legal Framework

- 2.1 In April 2003 the Employment Act introduced the right for parents of young and disabled children to apply to work flexibly.
- 2.2 From April 2007 this right was extended to cover carers of qualifying adults and in April 2009 to cover children under the age of seventeen.
- 2.3 From 30th June 2014 the right was extended to all employees.

3.0 Flexible Working Arrangements

- 3.1 Under this policy, an application to work flexibly can cover:
- hours of work
  - times of work
  - place of work e.g. home-working (whether for all or part of a week) if appropriate
- 3.2 This policy covers working patterns such as annualised hours, compressed hours, job-sharing, shift working, part-time working, flexi-time, staggered hours, term-time working and school hours working.

4.0 Qualifying Conditions

- 4.1 To qualify for the right to request flexible working arrangements, employees must:
- have worked for the School for 26 weeks continuously at the date the application is made.
  - not have made another application to work flexibly under this right during the past 12 months.

5.0 Applying for Flexible Working Arrangements

- 5.1 Employees wishing to request flexible working must put their request in writing to the Headteacher, by completing the 'Flexible Working Request Form for School staff', which can be found at Appendix 1. In order for an application to be considered, it is the employee's responsibility to provide sufficient information on the application form. The employee must specify a start date for the proposed change giving her/his Headteacher reasonable time to consider the proposal and implement it (if authorised).

5.2 The application should include:

- The date of their application, the change to working hours/patterns they are seeking and when they would like the change to come into effect.
- What effect, if any, they think the requested change would have on the department and team and, how, in their opinion, any such effect might be dealt with.
- A statement that this is a statutory request and a statement which maintains if and when they have made a previous application for flexible working.
- Whether they are making their request in relation to the Equality Act 2010, for example, as a reasonable adjustment for a disabled employee.

5.3 Within 28 days of receiving the request, the Headteacher must arrange a meeting with the employee to discuss the request. The purpose of the initial meeting is to explore the desired working hours/pattern of work and discuss how it might be accommodated. It will also be an opportunity to consider suitable alternative working arrangements.

5.4 All employees have the right to be accompanied by a work colleague or trade union representative at this meeting.

5.5 This meeting will not be required if the Headteacher agrees to the employee's proposal to change her/his working hours/pattern of work, as long as the Headteacher notifies the employee accordingly in writing, within 28 days of receiving the application.

5.6 The Headteacher must then ensure that the school's payroll provider is notified of the change.

Note: for the purposes of this policy, the Headteacher will consider the request; however, where the Headteacher is the applicant, the request must be made and considered by the Chair of Governors.

6.0 Headteacher's Response

6.1 Following the above meeting (if required), the Headteacher has 14 days to respond to the individual in writing. The Headteacher must either:

- accept the request and establish a start date; or
- confirm a compromise agreed at the meeting; or
- reject the request and set out clear business reasons for the rejection (see below), together with notification of the appeal process.

7.0 Business Considerations

7.1 Applications for flexible working arrangements can only be refused on the following grounds:

- the burden of additional costs;
- detrimental effect to meet customer demand;
- inability to reorganise work among existing staff;
- inability to recruit additional staff;
- detrimental impact on quality;
- detrimental impact on performance;
- insufficiency of work during the periods the employee proposes to work;
- planned structural changes.

8 Where the Request is Agreed

- 8.1 If the employee's request is agreed, this will be for a trial period of three months in the first instance. At the end of the three month period, the Headteacher will meet with the individual to discuss the success, or not, of the new working arrangements. If either party is finding the new working arrangements unworkable, a new agreement will be reached. If both the employee and the Headteacher consider the new arrangements to be successful, the change will become permanent from this point.
- 8.2 An employee has no automatic right to change back to her/his previous pattern of work, unless the application seeks the variation for a specified time period only and the temporary change of hours was agreed by the Headteacher. If an employee chooses to revert back to her/his previous hours or further change her/his flexible working arrangements, s/he will need to complete another 'Flexible Working Request Form for School staff'.

9.0 If a Request is Declined

- 9.1 If a request is declined the employee must wait 12 months from the date on which her/his last request was made before making any further requests. Consideration of a further request will be made if there is a change of circumstances.

10.0 Appeal procedure

- 10.1 If an employee wishes to appeal against a decision, s/he must write to the Headteacher within 10 days of the formal response being received in writing. The appeal must set out the grounds of the appeal and it must be dated.
- 10.2 A meeting of the governing body's Appeal Committee must be convened to hear the employee's appeal within 14 days of being informed of the employee's decision to appeal.
- 10.3 All employees have the right to be accompanied by a work colleague or trade union representative at this meeting
- 10.4 The employee must be notified of the outcome of the appeal in writing within 14 days of the meeting. The notification will either:
- uphold the appeal, specify the agreed variation and start date; or
  - dismiss the appeal, state the grounds for the decision and a sufficient explanation of the refusal.

11.0 Extension of time-scales

- 11.1 If the Headteacher (or Appeal Committee in the case of an appeal), requires more time to consider an employee's request, the Headteacher and employee can agree to extend the aforementioned time limits. The Headteacher/Appeal Committee must record this agreement in writing, specifying the period to which the extension relates and the date on which the extension is due to end. A copy of this record must be sent to the employee.

The Governing Body of Loughton School acknowledges the support and thanks Milton Keynes Council for allowing the use of their policy 'Flexible Working Policy for School staff' as the basis of Loughton School's Flexible Working Policy.
