

What are the important parts of the story? Justify your choices.	Can you solve the character's problem? What alternatives does the character have?
Can you find extra information in the pictures of this story?	Order characters e.g. who is most/least powerful, meanest/kindest. Does this change your opinion about a character?
Can you justify the actions of a villain?	How does this version of the story compare to another?
What would you have done when...?	Which is the most interesting part of the book? Why do you say this?
How is this text similar / different to another by the same author?	Make a list of words you are not sure of on a post-it note. We will use these for our discussion after reading.

What do you already know about _____? What do you want to know?	What does this make you think of?
What do you think will happen next? What evidence do you have for this?	How might the story end? Why do you think this?
Will you change your prediction after what we just found out?	Why does the character behave in this way?
Why does the author use this kind of language?	Why did this happen?
Can you think of (a number) of questions to ask the author?	How did the character feel when ... ?

What would have happened if ... ?	What is this character thinking?
Write part of the story from another character's point of view.	Write a recommendation or critic for the rest of the class?